About Us

Trust Thamesmead is a community development organisation with charitable status, working with the people of Thamesmead to provide better quality of life in the area.

The Trust is working in partnership with London Wildlife Trust and Gallions Housing Association on a really exciting project, Wild in Thamesmead which wants to breathe life back into the Tump53 nature reserve based off Bentham Road; a truly magical hidden wildlife garden created on an ancient munitions testing site, which we want to open up for Thamesmead residents to bring them closer to nature.

We are in with a chance of winning a massive £50,000 but to do this but we need your help!

We need to gain as many phone votes as possible 9:00am-midnight on Tuesday 26 November – the day the telephone number is released in the Daily Mirror and on the ITV evening news, which will also show a short clip about the project, so tune in, you may even know someone who's in it!

Opportunity

We are planning to gather an army of volunteers on 26th November to flood Thamesmead with leaflets with the phone number on them – and we need YOUR HELP! Our aim is for 100 volunteers to help hand-out leaflets and talk to people about the project outside schools, train stations and other areas with a high footfall. If you are free on Tuesday 26 November and want to be part of this amazing project and help to make Thamesmead even better than it already is, sign-up now!

Skills/Qualifications Needed

No qualifications needed, just a passion for your community, a willingness to “muck in” and a strong sense of teamwork. We will also need you to be approachable and friendly and someone who enjoys carrying out tasks alongside people from a range of different backgrounds. You might be someone who is interested in community development or someone who wants to get involved with positive projects in your area.

When Do We Need You?

Tuesday 26th November, times TBC
